Romeo and Juliet Quick Write – Language & Love Imagery

Love is an abstract concept often expressed using figurative language. Pretend you are either Romeo or Juliet. Write a descriptive passage to the other about your new love, using the following groups of images:

stars, heaven, eyes, twinkle, daylight pilot, vast shore, the farthest sea, compass
fire, gunpowder, kiss, singe, heat, burning sun

You must use all of the given terms and phrases; circle (or highlight) and number each one in your passage for a total of 15.

In addition, you must consistently incorporate one feature of Elizabethan language into your passage such as Elizabethan style pronouns, verbs, or sentence structure (see your language sheet for other options). In the space provided before your passage, identify what type of Elizabethan style language you used, and you must underline each example employed in your passage (or highlight them with a unique color). You must have at least four examples of a feature for it to be considered an employed technique.
