

Symbolism Notes

Green can symbolize money, ambition, hope, envy, renewal and growth. A green light (like a traffic symbol) is a signal to go ahead.

White symbolizes purity and innocence.

Off-white colors (cream, yellow) represent corruption.

Lavender is femininity all grown up. It represents refinement, grace, and elegance.

A broken clock displays a time in the past, symbolizing being stuck in the past.

Sunshine is happiness.

Thunder is turbulence, conflict, confusion.

Rain is depression and sadness OR rain can be a cleansing, renewal of life.

Spring is rebirth, new beginnings, new life, renewal.

Summer is passionate love, violence, anger.

Autumn is change and/or death.

Winter is isolation, loneliness, death.

Pearls represent wealth.

The myrtle flower is symbolic of love and marriage.

The daisy flower is white on the outside but yellow on the inside.

The orchid is exotic and can be white with stripes of color on the inside.

Horses are an old-fashioned mode of transportation, harkening back an earlier time.

A ladder is used for climbing.

Three cornered hat