

Name:
Date:

Period:
Ms. Lopez

“INITIATION” HOMEWORK PREPARATION

- a. Complete reading the entire text of “Initiation.” Try to annotate your initial impressions, but you should at least box and define given vocabulary and other unfamiliar words.
- b. Reread from page 240, paragraph 3, “What girl at Lansing High would not want to be in her place ...” through page 241, the end of paragraph 4, “The bell rang to end study hall.” Focus your annotation of the text with the following questions:

Why does Millicent want to join the sorority? What specific words or phrases does she use that show her desire to join the sorority? What specific words or phrases reveal her views of herself, her views of the sorority, and her views of what it would mean to join the sorority?

- c. Reread through page 245, paragraph 12, “people who are staring coldly out of the window. ...” This will help you prepare for a graded, group-based classroom activity.

Name:
Date:

Period:
Ms. Lopez

“INITIATION” HOMEWORK PREPARATION

- a. Complete reading the entire text of “Initiation.” Try to annotate your initial impressions, but you should at least box and define given vocabulary and other unfamiliar words.
- b. Reread from page 240, paragraph 3, “What girl at Lansing High would not want to be in her place ...” through page 241, the end of paragraph 4, “The bell rang to end study hall.” Focus your annotation of the text with the following questions:

Why does Millicent want to join the sorority? What specific words or phrases does she use that show her desire to join the sorority? What specific words or phrases reveal her views of herself, her views of the sorority, and her views of what it would mean to join the sorority?

- c. Reread through page 245, paragraph 12, “people who are staring coldly out of the window. ...” This will help you prepare for a graded, group-based classroom activity.